Text proposal Facebook/LinkedIn/Instagram

The AGYLE – African German Young Leaders in Business programme builds a bridge between young African and German leaders to establish a sustainable business network. Starting into its third year already, the programme is now calling for applications again!

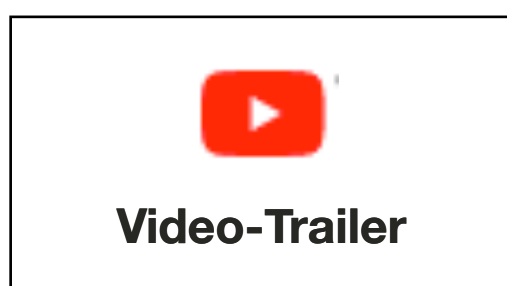

For the new class of #AGYLE23, initiators @Agentur für Wirtschaft & Entwicklung and @Deutschland-Land der Ideen are looking for 40 young leaders under 40 from Germany, Ghana, Rwanda, Tunisia and Senegal. In 2023, the young leaders will specifically deal with the topic of digital transformation and the development of innovative business models for a green and inclusive future.

Participation is free of cost and on their website you'll learn more about the programme, the benefits for participants and how to apply by 16 April: www.agyle-programme.com
